Cortez Gets Decision Over Houck In Great Slugfest

By JOHN A. DUGAN.

Casting aside all scientific boxing ability and going into a fifteen-round old-fashioned slugfest, Willie Houck, of Philadelphia, and Andy Cortez, of Brooklyn, last night gave the patrons of the Maryland Athletic and Social Club the best battle in the history of the roped arena in this vicinity.

Eight hundred fans made the journey to the club, and when Referee Pat O'Connor raised the hand of Cortez at the end of the fifteen rounds of milling no punches was made on any side, but even the most ardent followers of the Brooklyn slugger were compelled to admit that the game little "Wildcat" from Mount Airy deserved more than credit for the great showing he made and his willingness to exchange punches with his Manhattan opponent.

In saying these boys battled from going to going to putting it mildly, as they did more than battle. Each was willing at all times to exchange a punch, and many of the blows which landed would, under ordinary circumstances have halted the best of them, but this pair kept boring in for more, and more was what they received. Although the fight was seen here in a long while, it was one of the cleanest affairs ever staged at Ardmore.

Cortez was the aggressor over most of the three-minute rounds and his left lead and right-hand punch almost always found a resting place on the Quaker City wildcat. It seemed the harder that

BROOKLYN DOWNS CARDS.

Frank Bounding Ball Gives Dodgers 4 to 2 Victory.

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—A freak bounder gave the Superbas a 4 to 2 victory in eleven innings over the Cardinals today. With three on and two out, Mowrey ground down to first and just when Mowrey was ready to field the ball, it landed over his head. Myers and Daubert scored. The Cardinals bunched three of their four hits for their two in the sixth. Wheat made two sensational catches in left, crashing against the fence after spearing drives from Beecher and Hornsby.
